

The Katharine Hepburn Cultural Arts Center and The CT Film Festival Launch Their Monthly Independent Film Series

Wednesday, September 8 @ 7:00pm

The Connecticut Film Festival (CTFF) will begin screening films once a month at select venues throughout the state including The Kate, The Wadsworth Atheneum and The Warner Theater.

Beginning this Wednesday, September 8th, The Kate and CTFF Festival planners will bring a variety of award winning Independent Films to The Kate on the second Wednesday of every month.

September 8 will kick off the series with the acclaimed British comedy created by BAFTA Award Winning Director: Matt Lipsey

Caught In The Act 7:00pm

CAUGHT IN THE ACT is a hilarious, heart-warming comedy about deceit and integrity, friendship and folly and the triumph of humanity over greed. Set in the beautiful Welsh valleys, it tells the story of a corrupt parish council embezzling EU money to pay for their decadent lifestyles instead of funding the cultural development of their town. They soon find themselves having to perform the unimaginable task of producing one of the great Shakespearean plays for the most important festival in the EU cultural calendar. The curtain's coming down on this town!

9:00pm CTFF Shorts/Animation Program - Director's Choice!

Festival planners bring you a surprise collection of CTFF award winning and favorite shorts and animations. Some are edgy, some hilarious and irresistible, while others are twisted and unbelievable. One thing's for sure, they're all entertaining and unforgettable!

Each month will lead up to a culminating weekend CTFF film festival at The Kate on the weekend of June 24-26, 2011.
